DESCRIPTION	High-volume foodservice operators collaborate to leverage their unique combination of influence and experience with the single-minded goal of developing practical solutions that help expand the availability and sales of healthy menu choices.	Convenes healthcare professionals for a unique continuing medical education conference exploring the latest in nutrition research paired with interactive workshops focused on delicious, healthy recipes and techniques for healthcare professionals and their patients.	Invitation-only leadership retreat for top food and beverage executives, corporate and executive chefs, and other foodservice and hospitality experts to explore, discuss, and taste their way through a vital set of flavor, kitchen, dining, and hospitality management issues.	A deep dive into culinary inspiration and menu R&D strategy for this significant global food movement, building on the work of our Menu of Change initiative and inspired by the global cultures focus of our long-running Worlds of Flavor conference.	Annual ceremony commemorating the success and achievement of our industry's best and brightest with the Augie Award™—named in honor of legendary chef Auguste Escoffier—and raising essential scholarship funds for our students.	Benefit dinner and live auction at Copia along with golf at Silverado Resort and Spa—all to raise vital scholarship funds for students with the help of CIA friend and renowned chef Thomas Keller.	Ground-breaking summit that gathers leaders in high-volume foodservice, business, public health, and environmental sciences together to develop business-friendly solutions to today's most pressing public health and environmental concerns in the food world.	A collaboration of forward-thinking scholars, foodservice business leaders, executive chefs, and administrators from invited colleges and universities who are moving people toward healthier, more sustainable, delicious foods using research, education, and innovation.	A meeting with renowned chefs, restaurateurs, and winemakers from Latin America joining foodservice industry leaders from around the U.S. to focus on the culinary heritage, contributions, and flavor trends from specific countries or regions each year.	An exploration of global cuisines that are reshaping American palates and our industry. The International Conference & Festival is widely acknowledged as our country's most influential professional forum on world cuisines, food cultures, and flavor trends.	A unique collaboration between school nutrition professionals, school chefs, and suppliers to create and advance culinary-driven, healthier foods in K-12 schools; discover flavor and menu strategies; highlight successes and best practices; and develop training protocols.	Sponsorship opportunities—such as Alumni Weekend and regional receptions—that allow companies to develop relationships with CIA alumni and friends in every segment of the culinary world, from established food and beverage leaders to up-and-coming chefs.
